

RESQs Privacy Policy

Last updated August 2026, version 3.2.

INTRODUCTION

At RESQs (“RESQs”), we are on a mission to promote a sustainable lifestyle and minimise the waste of resources. We do this by connecting Users with businesses and service providers through RESQs services that help people rescue, reuse and better utilise sustainable extra resources, including sustainable extra food where applicable. By using RESQs, Users join our sustainable mission to make better use of resources and reduce unnecessary waste. This privacy policy (“Policy”) explains how we process personal information of our Users, Partners and any other individuals with whom we interact as part of running our business and providing our Services.

Scope of this Policy: This Privacy Policy applies to all RESQs services, platforms, websites, applications, products and features currently offered or introduced in the future, including ResQMeals, ResQtables and any other RESQs service. This includes resqmeals.app and any other current or future RESQs domain, subdomain, application or digital property used as RESQs expands as a sustainable lifestyle super app. Where a new RESQs service has additional privacy requirements, those requirements may be supplemented by service-specific notices, terms or consent notices, but this Policy remains the general privacy framework applicable across the RESQs ecosystem.

2. ABOUT THIS POLICY

This Policy, which includes our Cookie Policies (to the extent applicable, a copy of which can be found on our Platforms or via the links in section 3 below) is designed to help you understand our information collection practices depending on your relationship with us. order to provide you with relevant functionality.

6.2 Communicate with you. We will use some of the personal information we collect about you for the purpose of allowing us to get in touch with you. This includes: responding to your e-mails and/or support inquiries, sending you notifications of technical or legal nature, e.g. upon revision of our policies, or if one of your reservations has been cancelled by a Store, sending you notifications and announcements about us and our products via email, SMS and/or push notifications to the extent that you are opted in to receiving such communications. To the extent permitted by local law, we may send you marketing communications without relying on your consent as a legal basis or rely on your soft opt-in to receive such marketing communications, as applicable.

6.3 Provide, tailor, measure, and improve our advertising and marketing For Users: We will use some of the personal information collected about you for the purpose of helping us in our continuous efforts to promote sustainable lifestyles, resource rescue, reuse and waste reduction. This may entail: personalizing, measuring, and improving our advertising, analyzing preferences in order to tailor our promotional messages, marketing, advertising, and other information, sending you promotional messages, marketing and advertising based on your preferences as well as social media advertising through social media platforms, administering surveys, contests, sweepstakes, or other promotional activities or events sponsored or managed by RESQs or its Partners, and inviting you to events and relevant opportunities. For Partners or employees of Partners: We will use some of the personal information collected about you for the purpose of helping us in our continuous efforts to promote sustainable lifestyles, resource rescue, reuse and waste reduction. This may entail: personalizing, measuring, and improving our advertising, analyzing how you and our other Partners use the Platform in order to tailor our promotional messages, marketing, advertising, and other information, sharing your data with third parties such as our advertising networks (only if you have opted in to marketing cookies on the Store side of the Platform), to help us identify other people and businesses that may wish to join us in our mission of promoting sustainable lifestyles, rescuing and reusing resources, and reducing unnecessary waste and promoting sustainable lifestyles, sending you promotional messages, marketing and advertising based on your preferences as well as social media advertising through social media platforms, administering surveys or promotional activities or events sponsored or managed by RESQs or its Partners, and inviting you to events and relevant opportunities.

6.3.1 Targeted advertising. We may ourselves, or with third-party vendors, use your information to deliver targeted advertising to you when you use our Platform or visit other websites. Cookies, clickstream data, and other similar technologies may be used in this process. For example, if you are searching for information related to our services, we or our vendor may cause an advertisement to appear on other websites you view with information on our App and our services. This form of advertising, sometimes called “targeted advertising,” “behavioral advertising,” or “cross-context behavioral advertising,” enables us and our vendors to know about your interests in connection with the delivery of a specific ad. We believe that such advertising is helpful because it allows you to see advertisements that are relevant to your interests.

6.3.1.1 You may opt out of receiving targeted ads from certain data and advertising partners that participate in certain industry self-regulatory programs. Please note that by opting out, you will continue to see generic advertising that is not tailored to your specific interests and activities. For targeted advertisements delivered through mobil

6.4 Automated decisions RESQs uses automated decision-making in using your personal information for some services and products. An example is our fraud prevention and detection efforts on our Platform used to protect our business against fraudulent use of our services and to ensure the ongoing confidentiality, integrity, availability and resilience of our Platform. You may request that RESQs provides information about the decision-making methodology and ask us to verify that the automated decision has been made correctly. We may reject the request, as permitted by applicable law, including when providing the information would result in a disclosure of a trade secret or would interfere with the prevention or detection of fraud or other crime. However, generally in these circumstances we will verify that the algorithm and source data are functioning as anticipated without error or bias.

7. REASONS WE SHARE INFORMATION

7.1 Sharing with your consent or at your direction. Where you provide consent, we share your information as described at the time of consent, such as when authorising a third-party application or website to link to your RESQs account or participating in promotional activities with RESQs Partners or third parties. If you have opted-in to marketing cookies on our Platform, we may share your data with third party advertising platforms to increase awareness of our Platform and mission, drive traffic to RESQs, or otherwise promote our Platform as further described in section 6.3 of this Policy and our Cookie Policies for Users and the Store side of the Platform, respectively.

7.2 The RESQs and/or RESQs Sdn Bhd. To support us in providing, promoting and improving the Platform, we may share personal information within our corporate family of companies and related entities, where applicable, that are related by common ownership or control. When we share data within the RESQs Sdn Bhd, we have appropriate contractual as well as technical and organisational security measures in place to protect your personal information in accordance with applicable law.

7.3 Data processors. We may share personal information with service providers to help us run our business and deliver the Platform. These service providers may assist us to fulfil the purposes set out in this Policy, including (but not limited to) by: Processing payments for reservations, purchases and refunds on the Platform, hosting software functions which enable the functioning and development of our Platform, providing hosting services, supporting tools for improving the functionality, availability, resilience and security of the Platform, performing data analytics, providing performance measurements for our ads and campaigns, automating SMS, email and ads delivery, such as e.g. sending out newsletters, managing our social media and online advertising presence, providing integrated tools which helps us deliver customer care services. Whenever we use a service provider to process personal data on our behalf, we make sure that they are contractually bound to protect your personal information by way of a data processing agreement. When this is the case, we make sure that your personal information is adequately protected by ensuring that appropriate safeguards are in place in accordance with the applicable law governing the transfer and as further explained in section 8 of this Policy. We use Google "ReCAPTCHA" on our Website, which allows us to verify that you are not an automated software. To do so, this tool analyses different parameters, such as IP address, device information, and cursor movement patterns, which may lead to the processing of your personal information. ReCAPTCHA features are subject to the then-current versions of Google's Privacy Policy and Terms of Use.

7.4 Third party geo-location services. We use third party geo-location services, whom we share data with, to provide our Platform and to help us run our business as described below. These third party geo-location services may process personal information for their own purposes as controllers. If you are a User of our Website we may share your approximate geo-location (city level) (subject to your consent as described in section 4.1) with our third party geo-location service provider, Google. If you make a purchase in the App, which is available for delivery, we share the specified delivery address with our third party geo-location provider, Google, to validate the delivery address. Our legal basis for sharing this information is our legitimate interest in being able to verify that the specified delivery address is in fact an existing address so that our courier is able to deliver your order. If you are a user of the Store side of the Platform, we share the address of your Store with our third party geo-location provider, Google, based on our legitimate interest in being able to see where your Store is located on a map for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by us in order to: provide, improve and develop the Platform communicate with you provide, tailor, measure, and improve our advertising and marketing. Google Maps features and content is subject to the then-current versions of the: (1) Google Maps/Google Earth Additional Terms of Service at https://maps.google.com/help/terms_maps.html; and (2) Google Privacy Policy at <https://www.google.com/policies/privacy/>. We encourage you to familiarise yourself with these terms before using our Services.

7.5 Franchisors (only relevant for franchisees). If you are an individually owned franchisee belonging to a franchise chain, we may share the following information with your franchisor depending on the agreement we have with your franchise chain: name email address Store name and address information about your Store's use of the Platform (e.g. rescued meals, Co2 saved) information about User experiences with your Store, incl. ratings transactional data, and information of relevance to the franchisor about communication and interactions that you have had with our care team. If you are an employee of a franchisee, we may share your name and email address relevant for the Platform with the franchisor. Our legal basis for sharing this personal information is our and the franchisor's legitimate interest in being able to manage your franchise chain's agreement with us and your Store's presence on the Platform.

7.6 Public authorities. We may disclose your personal information to courts, law enforcement, governmental or public authorities, including to the police in connection with criminal investigations, only if and to the extent we are required or permitted to do so by law.

7.7 PR and media agencies. We may share your personal information with third parties such as PR, media and or other types of promotional agencies, if you have consented to participate in our promotional activities or have entered into a contract with us for participation in such promotional activities. Depending on the circumstances these PR and media agencies may be processing personal information as either independent controllers or as processors, processing personal information on our behalf and under our instruction. Where the PR or media agency is processing personal information as data processors, our relationship will be governed by a data processing agreement in accordance with applicable legislation.

7.8 Business transfers. In the event we are involved in a bankruptcy, insolvency, merger, acquisition or reorganisation event, your personal information may be transferred or shared as part of that transaction (e.g., for due diligence purposes) with advisors, counterparties, authorities and other relevant third parties as necessary. This Policy will continue to apply to your information also after the information has been transferred or shared with any new TGTG entity.

7.9 Sharing with other third parties. In order to provide you with our services, we may need to engage third party service providers such as freight carriers or logistics partners, to assist us in fulfilling our contractual obligations and for purposes of our legitimate interest in sending out advertisements. These service providers will have access to personal information solely for the purposes of performing the services on our behalf. We ensure that any third party service providers that we engage are bound by appropriate data protection and confidentiality obligations.

8. INTERNATIONAL DATA TRANSFERS. Any transfers of your personal information by RESQs will take place in accordance with the appropriate international data transfer mechanisms and safeguards applicable under the local law governing the transfer of your personal information. You may request a copy of the transfer mechanism governing the transfer of your personal information by sending a request to admin@resqmeals.app

9. STORAGE PERIOD. We retain personal information for as long as needed or permitted in light of the purpose(s) for which it was obtained and consistent with applicable law. The criteria used to determine our retention periods include: the length of time we have an ongoing relationship with you and provide our Platform to you e.g., for as long as you have an account with us or keep using the Platform, whether there is a legal obligation to which we are subject as certain local laws require us to keep records of your transactions for a certain period of time before we can delete them, and/or whether retention is advisable in light of our legal position e.g., in regard to applicable statutes of limitations, litigation or regulatory investigations.

10. SECURITY. The security of your personal information and our Platform is a top priority for us. We have put in place appropriate technical and organisational (including physical) security measures to protect your personal information from accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of, or access to, the personal information transmitted, stored or otherwise processed by us. We also only use suppliers that implement appropriate technical and organisational security measures in accordance with industry practises for good IT security.

11. YOUR RIGHTS. Right of access: you have a right to gain access to the information that we process about you. Right to rectification: you have a right to have incorrect information that we hold about you rectified. Right to erasure: you have the right to have information about you erased. However, please note that there may be limitations to exercising the right to erasure in accordance with applicable law. Right to restriction and objection: you have the right to ask us to restrict the processing of your information and similarly a right to object to processing. Right to data portability: you have the right to receive your personal information in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format. Right to withdraw your consent: if processing of your personal information is based on consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. Please note that withdrawal of your consent will not affect the lawfulness of the processing carried out before you withdraw your consent. Please note that certain personal data may be exempt from the above-mentioned rights pursuant to applicable data privacy laws, or other laws and regulations.

11.1 ACCESS. Easy access to exercise your rights directly in our App Our App provides you with full control over your own personal information. We have incorporated privacy by design and privacy by default on our Platforms and have user-friendly features for you to be able to exercise your rights directly in the App, e.g. to delete your personal information as well as an option to retrieve a copy of the personal information that we process about you. If you wish to exercise your rights directly in the App, please visit your account settings in the App. You may also: unsubscribe from our newsletter request a copy of your data, or delete your account by submitting your email address to us : admin@resqmeals.app

11.2 COMPLIANT. Still have questions or wish to file a complaint If the self-service that our App provides has not solved your query, or you wish to exercise other rights than provided for directly in the App or as set out above, you are welcome to contact us at: admin@resqmeals.app. We will make sure to answer your request without undue delay and in any event within one month of receiving your request. If your request is complex, we may need more time to process it, and can extend this deadline by two further months. You always have the right to lodge a complaint with a data protection authority of competent jurisdiction, if you are not satisfied with our response. However, we encourage you to always reach out to us first so that we may have the opportunity to help you with your request.

12. CHILDREN'S PRIVACY. Our Platform is intended for Users 18 years of age or older, and we do not knowingly collect personal information from data subjects under the age of 16. When we become aware that personal information (or other information that is protected under applicable law) from a child under 16 has been collected, we will use all reasonable efforts to delete such information from our databases. If you believe we might have any personal information from or about a child under 16, please contact us by using the information in the section below titled "CONTACT INFORMATION."

13. CHANGES TO THE POLICY. You can stay updated on any changes to this Policy by visiting our Website and App. In case we make material changes to the Policy, we will notify you on the Platform or by using the email you provided when signing up to our Platform.

14. CONTACT INFORMATION. If you have any questions about our processing of your personal information, please contact our privacy team using below contact details at admin@resqmeals.app
